Accommodation

This charming property is situated in the semi-rural village of Staplefield Lane, Warninglid. Located in the heart of the Sussex countryside, the area offers a tranquil and peaceful setting for its residents.

The village is only minutes away from the A23, which connects Staplefield Lane to the nearby towns and cities of Crawley, Brighton and Hove. Being so close to these vibrant cities offers great opportunities to explore and discover, with a plethora of shops, restaurants, pubs and nightlife on offer.

The village itself has plenty to offer too, with TWO popular public houses. The Victory and The Jolly Tanners. There are plenty of outdoor walks in the surrounding area and the nearby High Weald Area of Natural Beauty provides an abundance of nature and wildlife to enjoy.

If you're looking for a tranquil escape from city life while still being close to all the amenities, this property could be perfect for you. With its character features and beautiful garden, there's no better place to make your home for a short 6 month stay.
